HEY!
DID YOU WINK AT ME!

ME?
NAH, I DIDN'T EVEN BAT
AN EYE-LID

IT WASN'T THE COUGH THAT CARRIED ME OFF,
'T' WAS THE COFFIN
THEY CARRIED ME OFF in.

BOO!

WHO?

ME?

NAH! I'M NOT WEARING A COSTUME!
OVER MY DEAD BODY!

All this tacky Halloween decoration is in such

Bat taste!

The Mystery of the East Keilor
Cryptid

The first Sighting was late at night on the security camera.
an enormous fluffy shape...
the investigation began

A watercolor illustration in black ink and grey wash. A small bird with a large eye and a beak is perched on a stick, looking towards the left. To its left is a potted plant with long, thin, curved leaves. To its right is another potted plant with more curly leaves. In the foreground, there is a pile of several long, thin sticks. The background consists of vertical grey washes suggesting a forest or trees.

I found a pile of freshly broken sticks..

Was it the beginning of a nest?

I also found half a rat...

half eaten?

half decayed?

Strange sounds echo around

Was Something trying to Communicate?

I took the bins out that night, whistling as I went

as I walked back I was Surprised to see ...

An enormous cat
on the front step.

Was this the monster
I had been searching for?
